THE COURT MAKES THE FOLLOWING ORDERS

1. Petitioner/Respondent(circle one or both) shall enroll on the coParenter platform by _____ p.m. on _____(date) Petitioner/Respondent shall comply with all coParenter enrollment requirements including supplying accurate information ; current phone number and email to coParenter.
2. The parents shall remain continuously enrolled in coParenter until further order of the Court or youngest minor child of the parties reaches majority.
3. The parents shall use coParenter as their primary mode of communication utilizing all available features on the coParenter platform including but, not limited to accessing GetHelp as a means of resolving their parenting decision disputes.

4. The parents shall enable the 'alert' feature on coParenter and shall log in and check/respond to a coParenter alert within a reasonable period of time.
5. Parties are ordered to daily logins and check of their coParenter accounts.
6. Except in the event of a true emergency, the parents shall use coParenter as the principal means of documenting all information related to health, safety, welfare and education of the minor children.
7. The parents shall post within a reasonable period of time relevant information pertaining to the minor children.
8. The parents shall liberally construe their obligation to use coParenter in good faith.
9. If a parent uses coParenter to transmit a PDF or photograph, or any other document as defined by [Evidence Code 250] the party posting the document acknowledges that the posted document is a true and correct copy of the document and it has not been altered from the original unless expressly noted at the time it is posted.
10. Limited access to non-confidential coParenter communication is granted to attorneys of record, court-ordered custody evaluators, or such other persons specified by the court or specifically agreed upon by parties and or their attorneys of record.
11. The parents shall communicate in a civil, non-harassing, respectable manner through coParenter. If there is a Criminal Protective Order (CPO) or Domestic Violence Prevention Act (DVPA) restraining order, the proper use of coParenter method of communication and as sanctioned by the Court shall not be a pro se violation of either the CPO or DVPA so long as the communication is consistent with the exceptions allowing peaceful contact between the parties related to the issues of custody and parental access to the children.
12. The court accepts the stipulation of the parties that printouts from coParenter properly authenticated by a party may be received into evidence without further foundation or objection.

13. This order was served upon the parties directly or indirectly either through attorneys of record or the clerk of court in open court on the date it was signed. The court finds that the parties have knowledge of this order and the ability to comply with its terms.
14. The parties are reminded that a willful violation of this order may be punishable as contempt of a lawful court order. The court finds that each party has knowledge of this order, and the parties each have the ability to comply with this order.
